

Agenda for Co₂olBricks Results and Joint Declaration Signing Conference

Tuesday 03.12.2013

Bürgerhaus Wilhelmsburg, Mengestraße 20, 21107 Hamburg, Germany

09:00 Registration and Coffee with snacks

10:00 Saving Energy with Historic Buildings,
Mr. Andreas Kellner, Head of Hamburg Heritage Department

10:20 Urban Identity and Energy Efficiency,
Mr. Prof. Jörn Walter, Chief City Architect of Hamburg

10:40 The Value of Interreg Funding,
Mr. Stefan Herms, Head of the Hamburg State Office

11:00 Coffee Break

11:30 'Fæstningens Materialgård - The iterative energy saving and preservation process, and the end result,
Mr. Anders Brüel, Realdania Byg A/S

11:50 Riga Pilot Project,
Ms. Prof. Dagnija Blumberga, Riga Technical University, Latvia

12:10 Education is the key!
Mr. Tommi Lindh, Member Steering Committee Co2olBricks, Director Alvar Aalto Foundation & Museum, Finland

12:30 Research Results on Internal Insulation in Different Climates,
Ms. Kadi Varda, SRIK, Estonia

12:50 Lunch Break in the lobby

14:20 Developments of Energy Efficiency in Historic Buildings in Estonia / Baltic States,
Mr. Trivimi Velliste, Former Estonian Foreign Minister

14:40 Cooperation in Cultural Policy in the Baltic Sea Region,
Ms. Prof. Barbara Kisseler, Hamburg Senator of Culture

15:00 Co2olBricks Joint Declaration and Policy Paper,
Mr. Jan Prahm, Co2olBricks Project Coordinator

15:20 Joint Declaration Signing Ceremony and Group Picture

15:40 Come together with drinks and snacks

Directions:

By public transport:

By train from Hamburg Central Station to train station Wilhelmsburg and then by foot:

This is just three stops and 8 minutes by commuter train (every 5 minutes) from Hamburg Central Station by line S3 (direction Neugraben or Buxtehude, both call at S-Bahn Station Wilhelmsburg) or S31 direction Harburg-Rathaus as well calling at S-Bahn Station Wilhelmsburg. The dayticket is 5,80€ if you start your journey after 9:00 am or 7,10€ if you start before 9:00 am.

Here is a map of the footwalk from the train station to the Bürgerhaus Wilhelmsburg. It is 800m and takes about 10 minutes.

While you walk there you will see on your right side the brand new office building of the Hamburg Ministry for Urban Development and Environment and on your left side the best practice energy efficient and sustainable buildings of the International Building Exhibition IBA and the entrance to the International Garden Exhibition which both took place in Hamburg this year:

